

The information herein was last updated on Friday 15 June 2018.

Thank you for contacting the Legal Profession Conduct Commissioner. Before you complete the enclosed complaint form, please carefully read the enclosed Fact Sheet that explains important information about what the Legal Profession Conduct Commissioner does and doesn't do.

It is particularly important that you note the following:

- You may be able to resolve your concerns directly with your lawyer. You should talk to your lawyer, or the firm's managing partner, about your concerns before making a complaint.
- The Commissioner cannot award you compensation. If you believe that your lawyer has been negligent and you wish to receive compensation, you should obtain independent legal advice. The Legal Services Commission has a free legal help line that can be contacted on 1300 366 424.
- The Commissioner cannot provide legal advice or representation.
- The Commissioner cannot intervene in court proceedings, or change an order that has already been made by a Court.
- The Commissioner cannot prevent your lawyer from suing you for their fees or from taking other court action against you.
- The Commissioner cannot refer you to a lawyer or make any recommendations as to who you should instruct.
- If you want to make a complaint to the Commissioner, you must do so in writing. A standard complaint form is attached.
- A complaint about a lawyer's conduct must be made to the Commissioner within 3 years of the conduct occurring. A complaint about overcharging must be made to the Commissioner within 2 years of the final bill to which the complaint relates. In either case, the Commissioner has a discretion to allow a longer period within which a complaint can be made.

Our Enquiry Line is only open during the following times:

Monday: 10am – 1pm

Tuesday 1pm – 4pm

Wednesday – not available

Thursday 10am – 1pm

Friday 1pm – 4pm

Overcharging

Please print and cross boxes clearly.

If you believe that you have been overcharged by your lawyer, you can complain to the Commissioner by completing this section (Section B).

There are time limits in relation to a complaint of overcharging that you should be aware of. The Commissioner need only consider a complaint of overcharging if it is made within 2 years of you receiving the last bill that you are complaining about. Normally, the Commissioner will first try to see if, through a conciliation process, the bill (tax invoice) can be agreed between the parties. If it can't then the Commissioner may recommend what he thinks is a fair and reasonable amount for the legal fees to have been. If that recommendation is not accepted by both you and your lawyer, and if the amount in dispute is $50,000 or less, then the Commissioner may make a binding determination in relation to the amount in dispute. However, he can only do so if he first obtains a costs assessment. You may be asked to pay the reasonable costs of the Commissioner obtaining that costs assessment.
